TWO LAKE COUNTY STUDENTS NAMED ACADEMIC PEER ADVISERS AT UM MISSOULA--

Two Lake County students at The University of Montana-Missoula have been selected to serve as University College academic peer advisers for the 1998-99 school year. They are Paula Jones of Arlee, a freshman majoring in psychology and business, and Megan Tameler of Ronan, a senior majoring in elementary education.

Jones is the daughter of Alice and Ira Jones. Tameler is the daughter of Richard and Jean Tameler.

Academic peer advisers are selected through an application and interview process. Students chosen possess exceptional leadership, communication and interpersonal skills. Peer advisers are high-achieving and self-motivated students.

Over the course of the year, peer advisers are responsible for advising fellow college students in regard to course selection, general education and major requirements, and resource information.
